DELIVERY TIME

Xlibris is a print-on-demand publishing service provider, and all books are printed to order. The expected delivery times for Xlibris books are as follows:

- TRADE PAPERBACKS can take 10-15 business days to produce and 3-5 business days to ship within the continental United States.

ORDERING

- HARDCOVERS can take 15-20 business days to produce and 3-5 business days to ship within the continental United States.

Orders that include a combination of Paperbacks and Hardcover will ship following the Hardcover's printing time. Orders that ship internationally may take several business days longer. Xlibris assumes no responsibility for any delays created by international packages that must go through Customs.

XLIBRIS TERMS, RETURNS, and REPLACEMENTS

All orders with Xlibris must be paid in advance of book production, and must be paid in full. Given that Xlibris is a print-on-demand book service (books are created upon ordering) and does not keep a physical inventory of titles, book returns cannot and will not be accepted. The production cycle for each business day begins around midnight (EST), and so any order cancellations must be received prior to that time (before the books go into actual production). Order cancellations received after the book is sent to print cannot be accepted. Xlibris will, of course, replace any misprinted or damaged books.
